Mayor Suspends Office Hours Indefinitely

WHEELING, W.VA. – In light of the COVID-19 pandemic, Mayor Glenn Elliott has suspended his weekly office hours indefinitely.

Those wishing to speak to Mayor Elliott can still do so via telephone. An appointment for a phone conference can be set up by calling the City Clerk’s office at (304) 234-6401.

Residents should be reminded that the City’s fire stations, parks, playgrounds and City offices are closed to the public. The offices will remain staffed. If needed, appointments can be made with respective department heads. For utility or parking ticket payments, residents should utilize the drop boxes at the entrance of the City/County Building 1500 Chapline Street, the USPS or pay online. While the police department will remain open, walk-in reports are discouraged and all reports should be filed via telephone by calling 304-234-3664. For police, fire and medical emergencies, call 9-1-1.

Please monitor the City of Wheeling’s website at www.wheelingwv.gov and the City’s social media pages for more details and for updates. This information is subject to change.
